PRICE FIVE CENTS

FIRES CAUSED $101,350 LOSS DURING YEAR

Fire caused more damage in Adams County in the year ending July 31 than it did in the previous year, Adams County Fire Marshal John W. Murren reported this morning at the annual convention of the Adams County Volunteer Firemen's Association at Abbottstown.

Murren said he received reports of 28 fires during the year. Damage totaled $101,350 of which $64,000 was to property and $37,350 to contents. Firemen were successful in saving $146,000 worth of property and contents in those calls.

Last year only 18 blazes were reported. Damage totaled $68,450, of which $46,450 was to property and $22,000 to contents. Property saved in the fires was worth $37,000.

Murren said the 1962-63 fire loss total was the lowest in many years.

MORE HOMES BURNED

More homes caught fire during the 1963-64 year than during the 1962-63 period. Fifteen of the calls for county firemen last year were to homes. In the year before only five homes were damaged by fire.

Murren said quick action by the firemen in combating the house blazes, saved $95,000 in property and contents. The loss in the 15 homes in which fires occurred was estimated at $39,200 of which $25,950 was to the properties and $13,250 to the contents.

Five barns burned during the year ending last month. Damage totaled $49,000, $27,000 to the barns and $22,000 to their contents. Only $7,000 worth of property was saved in the barn fires. In the prior year four barns burned with $24,150 loss, of which $15,150 was to property and $9,000 to contents.

The other eight fires occurring during the last year covered the gamut from brooder houses to automobiles. Murren said the total number of fires reported to him represented about "two-thirds of the fires occurring in the area."

SOME NOT REPORTED

He said that many smaller fires, autos in which there is little or no damage, etc., are seldom reported to him. At the same time he urged the chiefs to send in all reports "so we can have a true picture of the situation in the county."

County President Robert Heyser, South St., is presiding at today's session, which will include a memorial service for 42 of the county's firemen who died during the last year. Rev. Fr. Michael Barrett, pastor of Immaculate Heart of Mary Catholic Church, Paradise, is to give the memorial sermon at the service.

The county convention today also will help mark the 40th anniversary of the founding of the Abbottstown Fire Co. Six charter members of the Abbottstown company are scheduled to be honored at the noon luncheon session of the county association today. This afternoon at 3 o'clock the annual convention parade will be held in Abbottstown.

Barefoot Boy Charged With Killing 2 Girls

JACKSON, Wyo. (AP) — A slightly built, nervous ex-soldier has been charged with first-degree murder in the slaying of two young daughters of an Illinois Circuit Court judge.

Andrew Pixley, 21, entered no plea and twiddled his fingers when he appeared barefoot in Justice Court Friday on a charge of slaying Debby and Cindy McAuliffe, 12- and 8-year-old Maywood, Ill., girls, while they lay in their beds at a Jackson hotel.

Pixley was bound over to District Court without bond. The two girls were raped and strangled early Friday morning while their sister, Susan, 6, slept nearby. Susan was not harmed.

County attorney Floyd King said Pixley was barefoot and shirtless when caught in the girls' room by their father, Circuit Court Judge Robert McAuliffe.

CHARGED WITH "VIOLATIONS" NOT HIS OWN

Jacob G. Appier, clerk at the C. E. Williams and Son office, Baltimore St., is no longer in traffic violation in the eyes of the Philadelphia police and courts, although for a time he was plagued with a stream of tickets for alleged parking violations in the city of Brotherly Love, which he has not visited for at least 10 years.

It all started last February when Appier received notice from Philadelphia that he was in violation of the law in Philadelphia for displaying false license plates on his car in the 2200 block of N. Front St. in Philadelphia.

This was news to Appier. The Philadelphia police listed his license number as 611-13F, which it was. They said he had false plates on his car in Philadelphia, but Appier had not visited that city for at least 10 years.

HE WAS HERE

Appier swore out an affidavit that it couldn't have been his car in Philadelphia on February 13 because he was here. The only reply he got was a series of notices of parking violations on March 2, March 24, March 26, March 27, March 30 and June 5.

While the notices came piling in, he got more and more angry with Philadelphia officialdom. Since his earlier letters produced no reply, he wrote June 27 to the traffic bureau officer in Philadelphia pointing out that he was being plagued with summons for violations he could not possibly have committed and that his black two-door 1958 Pontiac bearing license 611-13F, could not possibly have been in Philadelphia at the times mentioned.

He received a reply from Joseph F. Halferty, officer of the traffic division on July 10 that the violations were on a blue Cadillac and that if Appier had a Pontiac "my opinion is that the operator of this auto is displaying an altered registration plate."

WILL CHECK

Halferty added, "I have ordered the highway patrol in the area of 2200 N. Front St. to check on this car and will let you know if they locate it." So far Appier has not heard whether the Cadillac has been found.

His problems ended with the

PLAN EXHIBIT THURSDAY AT CHURCH PICNIC

A feature of this year's annual picnic of the Lower Marsh Creek Presbyterian Church, sponsored by the Church School, will be an exhibit of articles of historical interest related to the life of the church.

The picnic will be held Thursday at the church with a covered dish supper at 6:30 o'clock. The exhibit will be open from 3 to 9 p.m. and a member of the historical committee will explain the items and answer questions. The public is invited.

Articles given or loaned for the exhibit include pictures, books and pamphlets, programs for special occasions and an old Communion token. Members and friends of the congregation have submitted the interesting collection of items that tell of past significant occasions in the life of this historic old church now in its 218th year. The stone edifice in which the congregation is now worshipping was built in 1790 with stones that were brought by members from their lands. It served as a hospital in July, 1863.

The exhibit, which will be set up in the front of the sanctuary on the main floor, is a project of the historical committee that was selected from the congregation at the suggestion of the historical committee of Carlisle Presbytery. This committee consists of Mrs. Hugh Scott, Miss Margaret McIlhenny, Mrs. Margaret Scott Pruitt, Miss Joyce Adams, James U. Neely and D. Walker Woods. Another project of the committee was a service of commemoration and rededication held last June in the old cemetery, which had been recently cleared and a new fence built.

No, It Wasn't Gary's Day

NAPOLEON, Mich. (AP)—Gary Ellis, 19, says it just wasn't his day.

He was driving his sister's 1956 model car when the auto frame broke. He tied it together with a rope.

Then the rear end of the car shifted sideways and the drive-shaft fell out of its housing, but the roped-together frame held.

A neighbor in another car, began pulling Gary's auto. Gary's right rear tire went flat. The spare was flat, too, so the trip continued. The flat tire came off the wheel.

The wheel threw sparks from the highway that set five grass fires. The Napoleon Fire Department extinguished the blazes.

Gary, who finally made it home, said "I think we'll keep the car and just stare at it like a relic."

List Benefits In Ambulance Corps Program

The Ambulance Corps of the Bonneville Fire Company today announced plans for annual events scheduled to raise money for the operation of the ambulance during the coming year.

Sunday evening a card party will be held at the Bonneville fire hall to help raise some of the costs of operating the service.

On August 15 the ambulance corps members will begin the annual solicitation to secure members of the "52 club." Members of the club are those families who give $2 as "membership dues" toward operation of the ambulance. In return they receive free ambulance service when it is needed. The membership expires each year and new memberships are secured.

The ambulance corps members plan to call door-to-door in Bonneville starting August 15. When they have completed the borough they will start soliciting homes outside the borough for membership dues. They anticipate the work can be done in three week ends.

Paul Walter of the ambulance corps said the "52 club" annually provides several hundred dollars toward the operation of the ambulance, while other funds are raised by card parties and similar events held during the course of the year.

Those who may be missed by the canvassers may leave their $2 dues either at Staub's Garage or Bill's City Service Station.

Turkish Air Force Jets Roar Over Cyprus Second Time; Village Strafed

NICOSIA, Cyprus (AP) — Turkish air force jets roared over Cyprus today in a second show of support for the embattled Turkish Cypriot minority, a Turkish Cypriot spokesman announced.

None of the planes apparently opened their guns as they swooped over the island's northwestern coast, scene of bitter fighting between Greek and Turkish Cypriots for the past three days. However, a Turkish Cypriot spokesman said the aircraft had been ordered to "intervene when necessary."

The Cyprus dispute veered into another crisis stage Friday after Turkish jet fighters swept over Polis, a small port in northwest Cyprus.

STRAFE VILLAGE

The Greek Cypriot government said the jets had strafed the village, hitting an Italian cargo ship in the harbor. It said it would bring a charge of

LATIMORE TWP. NEXT ON LIST OF APPRAISERS

The first phase of the three-stage appraisal program being conducted in Adams County by the Douglas H. Morrison Company is nearing completion in Reading, Oxford and Union Twp., and will begin probably next week in Latimore Twp., according to a statement from Adolph Dahl, secretary-treasurer of the West Chester, Pa., firm engaged by the county commissioners to appraise all real estate and update boundaries in the county.

The county commissioners had had estimated that the county has approximately 25,000 individual parcels of real estate, including government buildings and properties, churches, schools, industries and personal real estate. Every square foot of land will be included in the assessment program, which will be completed by September 1, 1965.

MATCH PROPERTIES

The first phase of the program is concerned with measuring the buildings and "fitting" the property into the aerial maps compiled by the map division of the county assessor's office. Pertinent information will be listed on the individual tax card for further use. The first phase currently is being conducted by four men, but later will be increased to 10 or 12 men to expedite the program. The workers will speak with the property owner on the first call, and will contact him again only if some error shows up in the final review of the card.

The second phase of the program involves the visit of a reviewer to the property to make an appraisal from the visual appearance and the information the former team has listed on the card. At no time are the appraisers concerned with the "house-keeping" of a property owner or the condition of surroundings. They are interested only in the property physically and make their appraisals on the basis of number and size of buildings and general condition of the construction of the properties.

FINAL REVIEW

The third phase of the program will be the final check by the appraisers to verify the appraisals made by the reviewers.

Industrial properties within a township are the sole responsibility of D. H. Morrison, president of the organization, who is an expert in this field. Industrial properties are inspected and appraised after all other property in the township has been completed.

No Sign Of Mass Troop Movements In Red China Or In Northern Viet Nam

By CARL P. LEUBSDORF WASHINGTON (AP) — High U.S. authorities said today chances of a major expansion of the Vietnamese war appear to be lessening.

They reported that there had been no sign, so far, of mass troop movements in Communist China or North Viet Nam. And they said there had been no evidence that Communist sea forces or planes were hunting targets.

President Johnson had near-unanimous support from Congress to employ a flexible military response if necessary to meet any new Communist thrust in Southeast Asia.

SUPPORT JOHNSON

By votes of 414 to 0 and 88 to 2, respectively, the House and Senate Friday approved a joint resolution that "approves and supports" Johnson's determination "to take all necessary measures to repel any armed attack against the forces of the United States and to prevent further aggression."

South Viet Nam, focal point of the anti-Communist struggle in Southeast Asia, remained under virtual martial law, imposed Friday by Premier Nguyen Khanh.

Redeployment of beefed-up U.S. strength in the South Pacific continued. A squadron of supersonic jet fighters, newly arrived from the United States, stopped briefly in Hawaii, then headed for the Western Pacific and Southeast Asia.

TO DEBATE SITUATION

At the United Nations the Security Council invited both North and South Viet Nam to take part in debate on the situation in Southeast Asia.

TWO ESCAPEES ARE CAPTURED

Maryland state police Friday commended residents of Carroll County, Md., whose cooperation enabled them to capture two men who escaped from the Westminster jail.

Reports from Westminster quoted Cpl. Thomas Bosley, of the Westminster Barracks of the Maryland state police, as saying "We are very happy with the effort of residents in aiding law enforcement." He said repeated calls by citizens of the area to state police stating they had seen the escapees made it possible for the officers to capture the two men quickly.

Gettysburg borough police had been asked to be on the lookout for the men after they escaped Thursday night from the Westminster jail.

One of the men, Merl Smith, 21, was captured near Westminster Friday morning. The other, William Ray Anderson, 17, was apprehended Friday afternoon when a car he had stolen near Westminster was wrecked near Sykesville.

FREED CONVICT BACK IN JAIL

Harold A. Kernodie, 32, Greensboro, N. C., had a brief respite from jail Friday, according to the borough police call sheet.

According to the local officers, who picked up Kernodie on Baltimore St. at 4:25 o'clock this morning, the North Carolinian was released from the state penitentiary at Lewisburg Friday.

Friday evening state police notified the local officers to be on the alert for a man who had been in hit and run accidents at Camp Hill and Dillsburg and had abandoned his car there.

Shortly before state police called the local officers Joyce Rummel, 150 York St., notified the local officers that a six-foot, dark-haired man had escaped down the alley after her husband had routed him from the garage where he had attempted to steal her car.

Suspecting that this might be the man state police were seeking the local police began a search of Gettysburg. At 4:25 this morning they apprehended Kernodie and turned him over to state police, who removed him to Harrisburg.

According to the call sheet, Kernodie told the officers he had been drinking and didn't know how he had reached Gettysburg.

"Ice Capades" To Begin 25th Year

Going all out to top the productions of past seasons is going a long way for "Ice Capades," which will begin its 25th silver anniversary year with a pre-Broadway showing at the Hershey Arena August 15 through 22.

Yet the extravaganza has incorporated the new ideas and talents of show business' brightest names and has surpassed the possible expectations of those seeing past productions.

New dimensions in skating surfaces and dancing areas are created in the introduction of a rear-projection screen, winding staircase, entrance ramps and aerial scenery. The set is of air-fair Ice Capades by Douglas Aircraft.

Beyond that, specially written compositions by Hollywood composer-conductor, Gordon Jenkins, provide musical accompaniment to the more than 100 skaters.

Grandmother Of Late President Dies At 98

BOSTON (AP)—Mrs. John F. Fitzgerald, grandmother of the late President John F. Kennedy, died today. She was 98.

The widow of a onetime Boston mayor, she watched the inauguration and other major events in the career of President Kennedy on television.

On election day in 1960 she was recovering from illness but followed the results on TV. She said then of the newly-elected President: "I did all I could for him with prayer; he'll be a wonderful president because he is a wonderful man."

President Kennedy visited his grandmother in 1962 when he came to Boston to vote.

FAMILY PHOTOGRAPH

In mid-summer of 1963 she happily posed for news photographers amid a family group that included 10 of her 39 great-grandchildren.

On her 97th birthday — Oct. 31, 1962—she attended Mass at the home of her son, Thomas A. Fitzgerald. Her nephew, the Rev. John F. Fitzgerald, celebrated the Mass, and the President's mother, Mrs. Joseph P. Kennedy, visited her.

The former Josephine Mary Hannon, she was born in Acton, Mass. She was married there in 1889 to the man who later was mayor of Boston.

They had six children, including Rose, the late President's mother.

HEART CONDITION

A tall woman, about 5-8, she was hospitalized in August of 1960 with a mild heart condition.

Her nurse said she listened all day long to the radio newscasts of the Democratic convention. Asked once if she was excited about being grandmother of a president she said:

"I've had many excitements but this does excite me. I think it would excite anyone."

When her grandson became the presidential nominee he visited her. She posed with him for photographers, then hugged at his elbow and kissed him on the cheek.

When she watched the inauguration of President Kennedy on television she was aware that the Bible on which he took the oath of office was her own. As the inauguration progressed she said: "Isn't he wonderful... that's my boy."

WIDOW SINCE 1950

Mrs. Fitzgerald had been a widow since 1950 and divided her time between Boston and Hyannis where her son Thomas has a summer cottage.

The late president paid her a surprise visit on election day, Nov. 6, 1962 when he came to Massachusetts to vote.

Three of her six children are still living. Besides Mrs. Kennedy they are John F. Fitzgerald of Milton and Thomas, with whom she made her home. Her husband was known in political circles as "Honey Fitz" a name which President Kennedy gave to the presidential yacht.

"MY TRUEST FRIEND"

Dear God above embrace my heart . . . and drive away my sin . . . grant me the strength to start again . . . with faith and will to win . . . replenish me with fuels of hope . . . so I can find my way . . . give me the courage that I need . . . to face each coming day . . . I am a sinner for at times . . . I've strayed from out Your fold . . . but when the tides of life run low . . . I seek Your hand to hold . . . this fact alone helps me believe . . . that You are by my side . . . with blessed love to comfort me . . . and power to change the tide . . . I realize when things go right . . . I seldom seek Your hand . . . though this is wrong somehow I know . . . that You will understand . . . and so dear God I turn to You . . . for aid to struggle on . . . my truest Friend who gives me hope . . . when other hope is gone.

police but Appier found he had problems with the courts. Two official notices came from the Philadelphia courts which bore no stamps and were refused by Appier. The notices were returned to Philadelphia by the post office.

July 20 the Philadelphia courts finally decided to put a stamp on their notice and Appier received notice he was under arrest. He then wrote a letter to the board of magistrates, including photostats of all correspondence and stated, "In regard to your notice of my arrest for refusing to accept these summons, I would like to say that there was no postage applied and I was not about to pay your postage for these stupid errors."

CANCELS CHARGES

Appier has now received notice from John Patrick Walsh, chief magistrate for Philadelphia, that "I have cancelled these charges against you."

Appier said he is hopeful that the matter is either cleared up or that the owner of the Cadillac with a number apparently either the same or close to his has moved out of Philadelphia.

500 ATTEND DAILY NOVENA

The seventh annual novena in honor of the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary is being held at the National Shrine Grotto of Lourdes near Mount St. Mary's College, Emmitsburg. The novena, which began on Aug. 7, will conclude on Aug. 15.

Services are held each evening at 7:30 in the amphitheater of the Grotto. In case of inclement weather, the services are held in the college chapel.

Novena prayers, a sermon, and benediction are offered each evening, with a different priest as the featured speaker.

SCHEDULE SPEAKER

Rev. Hugh J. Phillips, director of the National Shrine, states that an average of 500 worshippers have been attending each evening. "Because of the increasing attendance each year," he continued, "we had planned to schedule a nationally known speaker this year, but unfortunately he had other commitments. We expect to make the necessary arrangements for a nationally known speaker in sufficient time for next year's novena."

The shrine is becoming increasingly popular as a place of pilgrimage, and the weekend retreats of laymen from the Diocese of Harrisburg conclude at the Grotto every Sunday. A week ago, Bishop Leech of Harrisburg, officiated at Solemn High Benediction Sunday afternoon at the Grotto.

The public is cordially invited to attend these novena services.

Tank Explodes In Turnpike Tunnel

HARRISBURG (AP)—A car driven by an Indiana man blew a rear tire in the Rays Hill tunnel of the Pennsylvania Turnpike Friday, causing the gasoline tank to catch fire and explode. No one was reported hurt.

Turnpike officials said the driver, Clarence Ingram of Gary, Ind., and four adult passengers were able to flee the burning auto.

Traffic backed up for almost an hour while the car was being removed.

Wages in Italy have risen 25 per cent in the last two years.

At the close of the program, the firm will submit its findings to the assessor's office and the county commissioners, who will determine the assessed value of the properties. The appraisers are only concerned with the local real estate market value of a property and will list that figure on the field card. All property owners will be notified by the appraiser firm before September, 1965, of the estimated value of their properties. Property owner who find the estimate too high or too low may arrange to talk with the appraiser.

Dahl said that the first phase will locate the property on the map and establish the boundaries with the owner. The buildings will be measured outside the interior of the buildings will be inspected in order to determine the value of the property. Furnishings and personal property are not considered and will not influence the appraiser, who is concerned only with the structural condition of the interior.

Recent sales will not influence the appraisers, Dahl said, and added that they are concerned with the value of the property over the past 5-7 years. Court-house records and property transfers are available to the firm and sale prices will be checked carefully against the appraisers figures. Dahl said the firm's personnel is "trained only to look for real estate values."

All new construction will be evaluated according to the stage of completion on September 1, 1965, he said, and local assessors will set the final appraisal upon completion of the structure.

HARRISBURG, Pa. (AP)—Pennsylvania Republicans, financially stronger and apparently united, moved today toward the fall election campaign in almost total commitment to presidential nominee Barry Goldwater.

U.S. Sen. Hugh Scott went a long way toward healing the wounds of the bitter battle for the GOP nomination by pledging his support Friday to Goldwater and vice presidential nominee William E. Miller.

And top party leaders scrapped the idea of a separate state campaign platform to avoid the possibility of conflict with the national GOP program.

Wayne J. Hood, one of Goldwater's top staff aides, pinching hitting for Miller, told a gathering of Pennsylvania's 67 Republican county chairmen that Gov. Scranton and the state party organization headed by Chairman Craig Truax had given "outstanding" cooperation to the Goldwater campaign organization.

Hood announced that the 36-year-old Truax had been named by Goldwater to a select committee of three state chairmen to coordinate the campaigns of the 50 state organizations and lay the groundwork for a meeting in Washington Aug. 15 of state chairmen.

Ray Bliss of Ohio and Peter O'Donnell of Texas are the other members of the committee.

TEN YEARS AGODentist Opens Office Friday:

Dr. George J. Wolfe, recently separated from the army as a lieutenant colonel, will begin the practice of dentistry Friday in the offices formerly occupied by Dr. Walter H. Danforth in the Plaza Building, on Lincoln Square.

A native of Melville, Pa., he graduated in 1928 from the University of Pittsburgh and practiced dentistry in that city. Entering the army, he served as an army dentist in the United States and in the Philippines and Japan. He recently completed his army duties at Fort Bragg, N. C.

Residing now at the James Gettys Hotel here, he is a widower, with one son, George William, living at Dallas, Texas.

Dr. Wolfe, seeking to re-enter private practice after leaving the service, said he learned of Gettysburg when he visited the Gates Dental Supply Co. to purchase new equipment. He had sold his prior equipment upon entering service. The supply company told him of one of their directors who was retiring. The director was Dr. Danforth.

Vertebra Broken In Miller's Back: A fracture of the 11th vertebra was suffered by Bernard V. Miller, Gettysburg R. 1, when he fell from a platform at the Gettysburg Shoe Co., Friday, physicians at the Warner Hospital said after studying X-rays afternoon.

Miller, Barlow fire chief, a salesman for Adams County Motors, deputy sheriff and operator of a bulk milk route, will be confined to bed for at least four weeks physicians said.

Kenneth L. Fair Given Discharge: Kenneth L. Fair, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. Leslie Fair, 120 Steinwehr Ave., arrived home Friday after serving four years in the U. S. Navy.

He received his basic training at Great Lakes and was stationed in the Philippines for two and one-half years, after which he returned to the states for his first leave.

He was assigned to the USS Nereus. In February the ship went to dry dock at Pearl Harbor from where it recently returned to San Diego, where Fair received his discharge Thursday.

Engaged: Mr. and Mrs. J. Wilbur Weikert R. 3, announce the engagement of their daughter, Hilda Irene to Jack R. Settle, son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul M. Settle R. 3.

Miss Weikert, who was graduated from the Gettysburg High School in 1953, is employed as a cashier-clerk at the Gettysburg Municipal Authority Mr. Settle, who was graduated from the local high school in 1948, is engaged in the trucking business. He is a member of the Howitzer Company, 2nd Battalion, 104th Armored Cavalry (Light) Pennsylvania National Guard.

No date has been set for the wedding.

Nicky Has Rival: Nicky, the Gettysburg Fire Department's canine mascot, has a rival.

Dennis Wallick, truck foreman, Wednesday evening announced the recent acquisition of a male Dalmatian by the Alpha Fire Company of Littlestown.

The dog, named "Mate," rode on the fire truck during the recent Manchester parade as did the two-year-old Gettysburg Dalmatian. It is not known whether the two spoke as they passed.

Today's TalkSECURITY

From a material standpoint any of us to say that we are secure. Security shifts all through life. He who is secure today may not be tomorrow. Many look upon financial security as the highest form of security that a man can have. This is not true. It is highly important, however, for one's peace of mind, but not for one's peace of soul. "For," as it is written, "what is a man profited, if he shall gain the whole world, and lose his own soul?" The happiest people of my acquaintance have been those who have felt secure in their hearts—people full of personal peace of mind, with a balanced sense of values, and unafraid to contest the right to a decent portion of life's rewards.

To have an abiding faith is to be assured of a security that nothing in this world can surpass. I have sat at the bedside of people, rich in faith, and seen them smile at the door of death—secure in the faith that they had clung to throughout their lives.

Belief in a Supreme Being and in a knowledge superior to ours is what fortifies our faith throughout life and lends to us an inward consciousness of power. This power becomes our security in the face of material failure, the loss of friends, or shattered illusions.

There is a sense of security that a man feels in his heart, when he espouses the right of when he bravely defends himself against abuse and misrepresentation.

Knowledge and experience are both fortifiers of security. The more we know and the greater our experience, the abler we are when emergencies arise, or when trouble comes, or everything suddenly grows dark.

He who has buried beauty within his heart and who has stored his mind with the great and useful thoughts of all time, has already secured himself against boredom and set aside a type of wealth that has no losing value.

Just FolksLIFE

To live is not to drink and eat
And brave the long years through.

Since life is never quite complete
Without a task to do,
For there are failures to be known
And disappointment's pain,
And hurts that man must bear alone

If pleasure he would gain,
'Tis not enough to breathe the air
And walk the town about,
There's something in the weight of care
Man cannot live without.
There's something when the tear drops start

Which gives a man a sense
Of knowledge of the human heart
Past mere intelligence.

For growing old is growing wise
In grief and pain and care,
And learning how much danger lies

About us everywhere.
Both humble lives and great careers
Are built on many woes
And many smiles and many tears
The wild beast never knows.

A vast experience is life
Of pleasure and despair,
Of gain and loss and peace and strife,

Gay youth and silvered hair,
If man could eat and drink and stay

Where sorrows never fall,
And never suffer, he would say
He hadn't lived at all.

Littlestown Stopped 7-1
By Gettysburg; LL Title
Game Here Monday At 6PM

The one-hit pitching of Lee McCans put the Gettysburg All-Stars back in the thick of the 1964 Adams County Little League playoffs as they turned back Littlestown 7-1 Friday evening before an overflow crowd on the winner's field at the recreation park.

The loss was the first suffered by the Littlestown squad following three exciting victories which carried them to the finals. Gettysburg, after losing its first encounter, has now bounced back to win its last four outings. The same two teams will meet for the second and last time in the double elimination tourney Monday evening at 6 o'clock. Gettysburg will be seeking its fourth AC title.

McCans, who was shelled in Wednesday's appearance in the first inning, came back Friday evening and gave the fans one of his best performances of the year. The tall right-hander fanned 11 batters, walked but three and gave up one hit, a double to left by Baron Sentz in the first frame. Sentz's blow was the only ball batted beyond the infield. McCans also contributed to his own cause by belting one of the three safeties given up by two Littlestown hurlers, and he tallied the winner's final run in the sixth inning.

SMITH SOCKS HOMER
Gettysburg jumped to a 3-0 lead in the first inning. A walk to Sam Waddell and an error putting Dave James on base, permitted Waddell to score. Bob Smith, the tournament's leading hitter, then blasted a towering 1-1 pitch far over the right-center field fence for a home run.

Gettysburg scored again in the fourth on Carl Swinn's double to right. The winners added their fifth score in the fifth on three walks and a hit batsman and closed out the run production with a pair of tallies in the sixth on a single to McCans and three Littlestown miscues.

Littlestown's lone score came in the bottom of the fifth. Jay Beamer led off with a walk and substitute John Roser followed with another pass. A wild pitch advanced both runners and in an attempt to cut Beamer down at third, the catcher made a wild throw and the Littlestown second sacked romped home with ease. McCans then went on to fan the side.

From all indications, Littlestown manager Marvin Breighner will send right-hander Kevin Zumbum to the mound in Monday's battle. Gettysburg manager Ed Markey will probably go with southpaw Dave James. Zumbum is 1-0 in tourney play and James has a 1-1 record.

2 TWINS HOMER
Tony Oliva and Earl Battey homered for the Twins in the opener.

Larry Brown drove in three Cleveland runs with two singles in the second game, and Jimmy Hall hit a homer for the slugging Twins.

The Senators had a close call at Los Angeles. Claude Osteen rolled into the ninth inning with a 4-0 lead and seemed on his way to a shutout, only the second for the Senators' all year. Then the roof caved in.

Jim Fregosi walked, Joe Adcock blooped a single to right, and the runners moved up on a wild pitch. Ron Kline relieved Osteen and Bob Rodgers drove two runs in with a single. But Kline got Vic Power to hit into a double play, as the third run scored, and Lennie Green grounded out to end the inning.

Osteen drove in the first Washington run. Don Zimmer added a homer and Chuck Hinton sent the last two runs over with an eighth inning single.

The sweep for the Indians gave them eight victories in their last 10 games. Woodie Held and Joe Azcue hit two-run homers in the first game, and rookie Luis Tiant checked the Twins on five hits. It gave Tiant a 4-1 record since he came up from the minors.

BEARS FORCED TO RALLY OVER
STARS 28-17By JERRY LISKA
Associated Press Sports Writer

CHICAGO (AP)—The victorious Chicago Bears missed Willie Galimore and the scrappy collegians discovered the "Graham Cracker" too late in Friday night's 31st All-Star game.

The champion Bears of the National Football League, trailing 10-7 at halftime, rode to a 28-17 triumph mainly on the reliable passing arm of veteran quarterback Bill Wade.

But the big thrill for a Soldier Field crowd of 65,000 came in the final quarter as Coach Otto Graham used two quarterbacks simultaneously—Southern California's Pete Beathard and will-o'-the-wisp George Mira of Miami (Fla.).

LONGSOME BACK
With Beathard as main ball handler and Mira as a lonesome halfback, the Graham maneuver produced a lively finish just as the game seemed to bog down after the Bears muscled to a 28-10 lead.

Mira kept taking flat passes from Beathard and either scampered for yardage or flipped passes from his wide vantage point.

With 26 seconds of the game left, Mira rifled a five-yard touchdown pass to another brilliant All-Star performer, halfback Charley Taylor of Arizona State.

It took the Bears quite a while to build up steam in their attack which was outpounded on the ground by the All-Stars 187 yards to 94.

BULL IS SHIFTED
Ron Bull, who must carry the NFL load at the halfback spot he shared with the late Galimore, carried nine times for 35 yards, top Bear rushing effort.

Galimore and end John Farington were killed in an auto crash 14 days ago. Last night's game was preceded by a moment of silence in memory of the two.

On the other hand, the scampering Mira rambled 56 yards on four carries and two other All-Stars—Taylor and his Arizona State teammate Tony Lorch, also bettered Bull's yardage.

Taylor, who was a one-man gang himself, carried seven times for 36 yards and Lorch punched 38 yards on six tries.

Early in the second quarter, the fleet Taylor—headed for the Washington Redskins—streaked for a 29-yard gain on a Beathard pass that set up a 14-yard field goal by Ohio State's Dick Van Raaphorst for a 3-0 All-Star lead.

RECOVER FUMBLE
Later in the second quarter, Taylor recovered a Bear fumble on the Bear 18. Two plays later, he took a pitchout from Mira and hurled a 14-yard touchdown pass to Georgia Tech end Ted Davis for a 10-7 All-Star lead at halftime.

And it was Taylor scoring himself on a five-yard shot from Mira just before the game ended.

Mira, signed with the San Francisco 49ers, began entrenching himself as darling of the huge crowd late in the third quarter. He popped a dozen passes, completing six for 49 yards, to lead the All-Stars on a vain 75-yard march to the Bear four.

WADE STARS
The eventual difference was pro savvy and the marksmanship of Wade, who completed 15 of 23 passes for 217 yards, including a 13-yard scoring shot to Mike Ditka in the second quarter and a 20-yard touchdown flip to Gary Barnes in the third quarter for a 21-10 Bear lead.

Wade also scored on a one-foot sneak to move the Bears ahead 14-10 in the third period after pumping pass-after-pass, including a 38-yarder to Johnny Morris, in an 80-yard payoff drive. Sub Rudy Bukich looped a 30-yard TD pass to Charley Bivins for the final Bear score.

The Bear triumph gave the pros a 20-9 victory edge with two ties in the All-Star series.

Bullet Fullback
Coaching Marines

Terry Looker, Camp Hill, former Gettysburg College football fullback, and Jay McNitt, former grid star at the University of New Mexico, have inherited the all-important responsibility of getting the Quantico Marines backfield in top condition before the season opener on September 19 against Fort Bragg.

Two former collegiate athletes were named backfield coaches for the national service football champion Quantico Marines.

After completing four years of football at Gettysburg College, Looker did graduate work at the University of Oklahoma. It was on the Sooners' home grounds that he experienced his first taste of big-time coaching. That came under the watchful eye of Bud Wilkinson.

Olsen and Olson may sound like a vaudeville act, but it was no comedy routine Friday night when Pete Olsen pitched the Charleston Indians to a 6-3 Eastern League victory over Elmira whose pitcher was Bob Olson.

In other action Springfield picked up a game in the league standings, defeating Williamsport 6-1, while second-place Reading was losing to York 5-4.

Neither Olsen nor Olson was around for the finish, but each was tagged with the decision. Olsen, the winner, is 6-4, and Olson, the loser is 6-3.

Johnny Mason and Andy Etchebarren homered for Elmira.

Matt Gayeski gave up only three hits pitching Springfield to its 6-1 victory. The Giants crashed 14 hits off losing pitcher Mike Joyce, 0-9 for the season. Gayeski is 14-5. Frank Johnson homered for the Giants.

Jack Jenkins drove in the deciding run with a single in the ninth for York's victory. Brant Alvey had singled and stolen second base before Jenkins' bloop single to center sent him home. Carlos Medranos was the winner. He is 10-6. The loser was Mickey Sinks, 10-5.

NEW YORK (AP)—Ed Temple considered the question carefully, letting his gaze wander over Downing Stadium and the United States' women's Olympic track and field hopefuls.

"No," said the man who should know best, "there's no Wilma Rudolph out here. It will take three to do what she did."

"But maybe that's not completely fair," he quickly added. "Her records are in the book. Anyone else has got to get there."

CURRENT PRIZE
"But you have to consider that Edith McGuire did something no one else has done. She won three gold medals against the Russians. Even the Russians haven't won three. Even Wilma didn't do that."

Temple is the Tennessee State coach who developed Wilma Rudolph, women's world record holder at 100 and 200 meters and a three-gold medal winner in the 1960 Olympics.

His current prize is Miss McGuire, her apparent to the retired Wilma's crown as queen of the American sprinters. The 20-year-old Tennessee State student won the 100 and 200 meter dashes in the recent meet with Russia and ran a leg on the winning relay team.

She qualified for today's finals in both the 100 and 200 meters in the Olympic trials, leading the 200 meter qualifiers with a time of 23.8.

NEAR RECORD MARK
She and Tennessee State teammate, Wyomia Tyus, each was timed in 11.3 in winning their 100 meter semifinals Friday, just one-tenth of a second off Wilma's record. Each was favored by a trailing wind, however.

All finals were scheduled today.

Highlight of Friday's activity, second of the three days of qualifications for the women who will represent the U. S. in Tokyo, was the pentathlon victory of Mrs. Pat Winslow, a controversy as to whether she will be allowed to compete in today's broad jump final, and an American record of 54.6 in the 400 meters by Janell Smith.

Mrs. Winslow, a blonde, 5-foot-11 housewife from San Mateo, Calif., won four of the five pentathlon events and took the overall title with 4,544 points. This is just over the Olympic qualifying standard of 4,500 points and well off international standards.

Experiments Being Made In Coloring Highways

By RICHARD L. GRAVES
Associated Press Writer
HARRISBURG (AP) — A yellow brick road leads from the land of the Munchkins to the emerald City of Oz; a rainbow-hued Route 422 connects Hershey with Harrisburg.

One road is fiction; the other is fact. But when you look east toward Hershey — the chocolate city — from the emerald-colored dome of the Capitol you wonder which is for witches.

Most people are familiar with the yellow brick road. But about that road in Pennsylvania:

Sections of it are green, red, blue, yellow, orange, tan and white, as well as the traditional asphalt black and concrete buff.

The colored sections are surfaced with a synthetic resin paving material mixed with pigments.

INSTALLED IN OCTOBER

The highway was installed last October as part of one of the Highway Department's more colorful experiments. It is undergoing daily usage on the heavily traveled route as part of a long-term test to determine whether the resin material wears as well as the traditional road materials.

Why the colors? Well, pick up your official state road map. Some routes are blue, some are red, some are green. You guessed it. In the back of the Highway Department mind there is the thought that sometime in the future the lines on the map and the roads on the countryside will match.

"Yes sir," says the gas station attendant, "you follow the green road until you come to a red road. Turn right on red, then a sharp left on yellow..."

COMMON COLONY

Ours is a complex society. The common colors of red, green, blue and yellow eventually would have to give way to other colors as new routes would be constructed — fuchsia, chartreuse, magenta.

More More More
Now you're in trouble.
"Dear," says the back seat driver, "you turned on the magenta road and that gas station said turn on the purple road."

"It looks purple to me," grumbles pop, and so it would. Then there is the poor color-blind chap. Green and red roads would be gray for him.

And what about the politician? Nothing will do but a red, white and blue undivided highway through the constituency. (But that same politician might oppose red all by itself as a highway color. After all, certain enemies of mankind are reds and who wants to follow the red road?)

There are other problems.

For example, psychiatrists report that blues and dark greens tend to depress people, while reds and yellows tend to elate them.

So, there is this truck driver who has been driving the blue route for eight days and gradually he begins to wonder whether life is worth it all and right over the bridge.

The opposite would be the conservative banker driving his expensive late-model limousine down a bright yellow highway. Faster and faster he goes. He floors it. Pow.

Meanwhile, there is the poor guy whose real estate has devalued because his house doesn't match the highway in front of it.

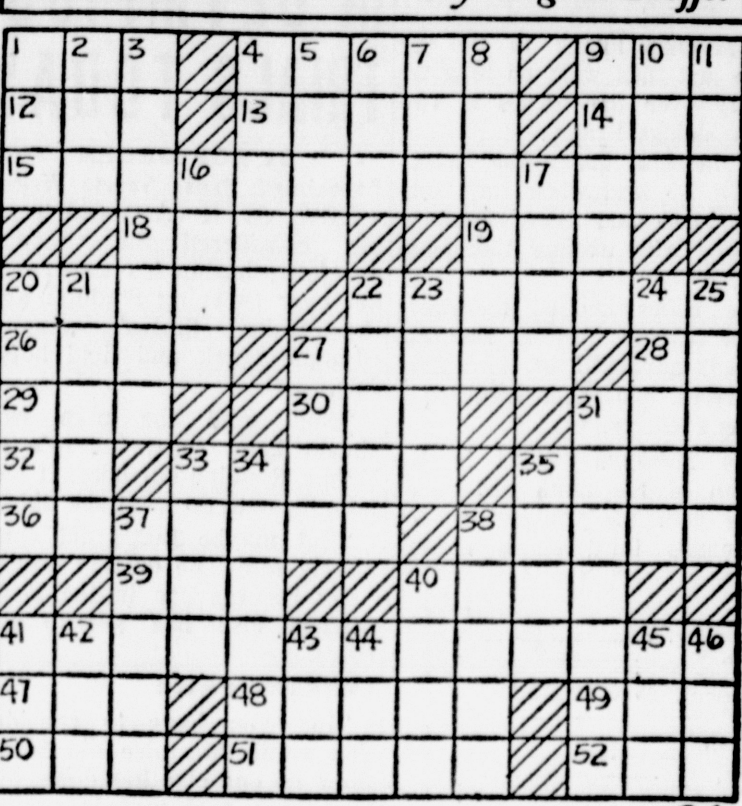

Well, take heart. It's still in the experimental stage and nobody yet has suggested yellow bricks.

Cancer Fatal To Polish President

WARSAW (AP) — Alexander Zadawski, 65, president of Poland since 1952, died Friday, the Polish press agency reported. Cause of death was not given. Unofficial sources said he had cancer.

Zadawski, a member of the ruling Communist party politburo, underwent a major operation April 16 by a team of abdominal surgeons headed by a Briton, Dr. Hermon Taylor of London. Medical sources at the time said Zadawski had ailment of the digestive tract.

HIRE 200 TEEN-AGERS FROM SLUMS

NEW YORK (AP) — New York City has found summer jobs on its own payroll for 200 teen-agers from its racially-troubled slum neighborhoods. Eight hundred more are to get jobs next week.

The goal is to get the youths off the streets, give them job experience and fight poverty with paychecks.

Recruiting centers report that hundreds of disappointed youths have been turned away daily. The emergency program, financed by the city's Antipoverty Fund, is geared for 1,000 youths this summer.

The first 200 were placed Friday but only 26 of them went on the payroll immediately — 24 as weed cutters along city streets and two, both girls, as clerks.

The 26 Negroes and Puerto Ricans got a pep talk from City Highways Commissioner John T. Carroll, who told them: "I don't want you to think weeding is an unnecessary or menial job."

Mayor Robert F. Wagner announced the program a week ago as part of his antipoverty program to meet the needs of Negroes and Puerto Ricans in Harlem and Brooklyn.

Both sections were torn by racial rioting and looting last month.

The youths hired by the city will get $1.50 an hour, and many said they'd spend a large part of it on clothes.

KENNEDY KIDS LURE TOURISTS

HYANNIS PORT, Mass. (AP) — Business was too good for the sidewalk stands run by nieces and nephews of the late President John F. Kennedy.

They closed up shop Friday after customers and tourists in this seaside community had snarled traffic near the Kennedy compound.

The children, operating from orange-crate counters, offered postcards, medallions and souvenirs to raise funds for the Kennedy Memorial Library to be built in Boston.

They raised nearly $50 in two days from flabbergasted tourists who became willing buyers when they learned the identities of the storekeepers.

But after the word got around, Hyannis Port's narrow streets were jammed, and police had to be called to direct traffic.

And the enterprising Kennedy kids decided, reluctantly, they were too successful and went out of business.

The little storekeepers were the children of the late president's brother, Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy, and his sister, Mrs. R. Sargent Shriver, Mrs. Peter Lawford and Mrs. Stephen Smith.

Among those at the stands were Maria Shriver, 8; Robert Kennedy Jr., 10; his brother, David, 11, and sister Mary, 7; and Sydney Lawford, 7.

Major League Stars
BATTING — Frank Thomas, Philadelphia, celebrated his trade from the New York Mets to the Phillies earlier in the day by driving in two runs with a double and single in the Phils' 9-4 victory over his former mates.

Pitching — Ray Herbert, Chicago White Sox, blanked Boston on five hits as the White Sox snapped a three-game losing streak with a 2-0 victory over the Red Sox.

LEWISBURG, Pa. (AP) — Further proceedings in a Lebanon Bible reading case have been continued by U.S. District Court until Oct. 15.

Judge Frederick V. Follmer on Thursday denied a motion by the Cornwall-Lebanon Suburban Joint School Board, defendant in the case, for summary dismissal of the complaint.

The case grew out of a U.S. Supreme Court decision which banned Bible reading and prayers as a required classroom exercise.

James N. Snavely of North Lebanon Twp. brought suit against the school board seeking to halt further such religious exercises at the Ebenezer Elementary School, which his two children attend.

The school board, meanwhile, has been trying to draft a Bible study program that would fit into the framework of the supreme court decision.

Need For More Living Area, Farm Production, Create Problems In Pennsylvania

By THOMAS E. PIPER
Adams County Farm Agent

About nine million acres of Pennsylvania are in crops and pastures. Though farm output in Pennsylvania is increasing gradually, production is being concentrated on the better soils, and some less productive land becomes available for other uses each year.

Thomas E. Piper

Pennsylvania is faced with the problem of how to develop its land, water, forest and wildlife resources. One facet of the problem is how to create new land uses or expand old ones that will be attractive and useful to nearby urban populations. The land use planning question is not new, nor is it unique to Pennsylvania. However, in the state, the close association of a large urban population, substantial agriculture, forests, and large areas of land suited for recreational development create opportunities and difficulties found in few other states.

IMPORTANT NEEDS

One of the most important needs in land use planning, is a clear understanding of the facts and issues. This must be done by knowledge of the existing laws and an intensive study of all aspects of the issues involved.

To help those interested in desiring a clearer understanding of some of the issues involved, the Agricultural Extension office has available a publication "Public and Private Land Use Issues." It deals with private and public land development, eminent domain, urban expansion, and a summary of state and federal lands in Pennsylvania. Anyone wishing a copy should contact the extension office.

FORAGE TESTING GAINS

The number of forage samples processed by the Penn State Forage Testing Service rose by 31 per cent during the year ending May 31.

An even greater increase occurred in the number of feeding programs developed for dairy and livestock farmers. A 46 per cent increase in feeding programs was registered.

Much of the increased forage testing activity apparently stems from the availability of the combined dairy herd improvement and forage testing programs (DHIA-FT). Through this program dairymen may obtain forage supplies from their DHIA Supervisors. Most important, they receive grain recommendations for individual cows each month.

Farmers should be reminded that haylage or forage containing 60 per cent or less moisture as ensiled may be sampled as the silo is filled. This also is true for corn silage when harvested in the full dent stage.

Sampling at silo-filling time reduces processing time for reports and feeding programs. Submitting hay samples in advance of barn-feeding also facilitates use of the program by farmers. Further information on this valuable service may be obtained from the Agricultural Extension office, 111 Baltimore St.

PROGRAMS FOR DISNEY SHOWS ALMOST READY

By BOB THOMAS

AP Movie-Television Writer HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Television producers who scurry to make deadlines could take a lesson from Walt Disney. He's three-fifths finished with his programs for the coming season, which doesn't start until Sept. 20.

The 1964-65 season is a special one for Disney — his 10th. His shows, first on ABC and now in color on NBC, have always reflected taste, quality and variety. The selection next year will continue to be varied, with accent on original, multi-chapter films.

FILMS IN 3 PARTS

"Of the 25 shows, we'll have about five nature films, two feature movies, two cartoon shows and the rest three and four-part story films," said Walt. "There's a reason for doing films in three or more parts. We put more time and bigger budgets into our shows than most television producers do."

"We believe in getting more action and bigger backgrounds for our stories, not just shoot them against a wall. We can justify the expense when we use sets for three or four shows. For instance, I had a whole Philadelphia street in the '90s built for 'Gallagher,' a story about a newspaper copy boy written by Richard Harding Davis."

Walt doesn't like to be pressed by deadlines. Hence 15 of the year's product of 24 hours is filmed.

"And we've got nature photographers out in the field shooting subjects for 1965 and 1966," he added.

As host of the series, Walt must spend some of his time as an actor. "There's some ham in all of us," he admitted. "I can shoot about five introductions in a day, and I find the work fun. It gives me a chance to get away from everything else for a day."

He tries to work animals into his act, and the results are often unexpected. For the lead-in to the show of "Nicki, Wild Dog of the North," he put a bunch of baby dogs, cats, guinea pigs, possums and skunks in a cage to show young animals don't harm each other as long as they're not hungry. Someone suggested adding chicks and ducklings, and this was done.

Walt was in the middle of a take when he looked down to a kitten with a chick in its mouth and a puppy trying to make off with a duckling. He rescued the victims just in time.

Wives Aid Hubbies At Track Chores

CALEDON, Ont. (AP) — For sheer togetherness, two couples at Conn Smythe's Thoroughbred racehorse farm near here are way out front.

Jim and Theo Miller form a husband-and-wife combination as exercise boys (or girls). Ruth Woodcock has the same job, and her husband Charles is a groom. The four started out in Suffolk, England, tending horses. When they came to Canada they all obtained jobs at the farm operated in the Caledon hills northwest of Toronto by Smythe, former boss of the Toronto Maple Leafs hockey team and one of Canada's most successful racehorse breeders.

Day starts at sunrise for the riders, even during sub-zero weather.

"When it's very cold we keep the horses out for shorter periods of time," Mrs. Miller says. "But they have to be kept in condition even if your fingers go numb."

Fortunately for the girls, they're not particularly interested in affairs that call for dresses and hats.

"I feel completely undressed in a sheath skirt," says Mrs. Miller. "Give me jeans and leotards any day."

A Lovelier You

WASH 'N' WEAR COMPLEXION. Even a real kooky teen would not be careless about the cleaning of her best formal. Would she now?

How is it then that so many damsels forget all about the "quality-needs-quality-care" philosophy when it comes to the complexion?

Skin is the finest of fabrics with the most in the way of wash-wear qualities. Soap and water keeps a good skin good, and helps to improve a faulty one.

The washing technique that gives the cleanest, clearest results starts with "spot cleaning." Simply apply thick soapsuds, with fingertips or complexion brush, to the forehead, nose and chin. Then massage those areas well and follow up with a thorough warm-water rinse.

Now lather the entire face, let the lather set for a few moments, and rinse until the skin loses its sudsy slip. Finish with splashes of cold water and pat dry.

Occasionally, before washing, hold your face over steaming water. Steam encourages the pores to release impurities. It also brings up a wonderful fresh glow.

To appear presentable, skin has first and foremost to be fresh. Oh, it may also benefit from medicare or cosmetic-care. But the effectiveness of either depends on cleanliness.

A soiled dress can go back in the closet but, willy-nilly, you have to wear your skin!

A LOVELIER COMPLEXION

Whatever your skin problems, to find a solution send for my booklet, "A LOVELIER COMPLEXION." Detailed advice contained includes the correct care

Hugh O'Brien Will Emcee Miss International Beauty Spectacular On NBC, 8:30 To 9:30 P.M. August 14

By RUTH E. THOMPSON

From Iceland to Long Beach, Calif., to Paris and full-circle back to Long Beach it's been a cinderella year for "Miss International Beauty of 1964." And while it won't end the glamour-life for Gudrun Bjarnadottir, August 14 will signal a new beginning for a new beauty queen with $10,000 in pocket money for a starter.

Gudrun, now well-launched as a high fashion model, will do the crowning of her successor, "Miss International Beauty of 1965."

But even before the final minutes when the judges' choices are made known "The International Beauty Spectacular" according to producer Dick Gottlieb should prove a lively, as well as "live" hour of televiewing. (Friday, August 14, NBC, 8:30 - 9:30 p.m.).

TV host for the spectacular will be Hugh O'Brien, no slouch himself in the good-looks league.

LONG PLANNING

The event this year is drawing entrants from 46 countries and 44 states . . . and though the fifteen finalists aren't chosen until August 13, the pageant must all come off with a Ziegfeld gloss.

It's all right by Gottlieb. He seems to have mastered a kind of dynamic calm that permits him to start months ahead with his big canvas, then start coping with the unexpected at air time.

This is his second term with the international spectacular . . . so he has more than an inkling of what "the night" will be like. He says:

"Backstage it's all chaos with stagehands bumping into the interpreters who're there to point the way to the ladies' room in any language.

SMOOTH, EXCITING

"But onstage, we trust, it'll be smooth to the eye but exciting.

"Miss International Beauty 1964" is getting ready to crown her successor who will be chosen August 14 in Long Beach, Calif., with live coverage by NBC, 8:30-9:30 p.m. Though she's turning over her scepter, Icelandic beauty Gudrun Bjarnadottir won't have to give up her Cinderella life. She's now a successful high-fashion model . . . in Paris.

"I want everybody on the edge of their seats . . . and I mean everybody tuned in, not just the 3,700-person theatre audience.

"After all, this is a contest. Those girls are really competing. $10,000 is a lot of money. They all have dreams of what they'd like to do with it."

"I want viewers to become so involved they'll choose one girl and root out loud for her."

To help you make your choice in one hour you get a quick once-over of all the entrants, then a succession of impressions of the fifteen finalists as they parade in native costume, in play suits "identical, attractive, but not as skimpy as bathing suits," and finally in evening gowns.

HEAR THEM THINK

"Yes," says Gottlieb, "we'll use our voice-over technique again." He says he got so tired of hearing every girl in every beauty competition mouth the same "I'm so happy to be here" that last year he hit on the idea of having them pre-tape their thoughts, then doing the playback as the girls paraded live. Gives a sort of eerie stream-of-consciousness, "You hear them think," quality. It also helps sharpen up that rooting interest.

This gimmick was so successful in fact that it's already been imitated by another major beauty event. Does Gottlieb mind? You could almost hear him shrug over the long-distance phone.

"Just shows how effective it is. I think we're so lucky to have Jan Miller. She worked with me for years on 'This Is Your Life.' By now she's done a full research job with dossiers on all the candidates. This she follows up with personal interviews, when the girls arrive.

STYLISH PERSON

"Jan is tops . . . a warm, wonderful and stylish person. First she gets the confidence of the girls, many of whom are frightened at being besieged. Then she gets good nuggets."

This is not a talent search, Gottlieb wants you to understand. It's a beauty contest, period. But beauty with him is brain-deep.

"A lot of us — and that includes me until I first worked on this last year — have preconceived ideas of beauty contests as somehow tawdry. But that's just not so. Why I found that in Europe, Asia and South America beauty contests are taken very seriously and the girls themselves are very high type."

Proving that the majority have a lot more on their minds than their mirror images, he recalls some of the things last year's entrants revealed about themselves:

BEAUTIFUL GIRL

"Miss Colombia (a beautiful girl!) said if she won she'd make life less painful for prisoners.

"Miss Ireland said that when she was a little girl she considered herself ugly. She wanted to help handicapped children . . . and as a matter of fact, though she didn't win, that's just what she is doing now."

Miss Tahiti said she would have used most of the prize money "To help the poor people of my country and the rest to educate myself for teaching."

And what about the contest that attracts these lovely high (Continued On Page 8)

TV-RADIO

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — All around the Hollywood studios, in this comedy year, television actors are playing their scenes for laughs. But on the back lots of MGM and Universal-Revue, World War II is still — being refought under the sizzling California sun.

"Combat," ABC's drama, soon will start its third season battling from the Normandy beachheads to the Maginot Line, a more leisurely trip than the real fighting men made some 20 years back.

At busy Revue, a portion of the battle of the Bulge is being recreated at one end of a small artificial lake. The other end is a snow-covered Alaska scene, part of a motion picture in the works.

BASED ON EPISODE

The war show in progress is called "Operation Grief" based on a real episode of the war when specially-trained, English-speaking German saboteurs were dressed in GI uniforms and sent behind the allied lines to make serious mischief. It will be one program of NBC's returning "Suspense Theatre" anthology series on Thursday nights.

A muddy road had been created beside the lake and actors in grimy uniforms were resting — like real, tired soldiers in the shade of fake trees. One, particularly dust-covered and sporting a three-day beard, arose. It proved to be Robert Goulet, the handsome young baritone, who is making his TV acting debut in the episode.

NIPPED BY BEAR

Fess Parker, making an easy character shift from Davy Crockett to Daniel Boone this year, was nipped on the neck Wednesday by a bear cub. The scene involved was one where the intrepid backwoodsman was "grinning down" — staring down — the animal instead of shooting it. The minor wound was treated, disguised with makeup and Parker kept on working.

Raymond Bailey of "The Beverly Hillbillies" worked as a seaman on trips to China, Japan, the Philippines, Hawaii, Europe and the Near East.

As producer of "The Twentieth Century," Isaac Kleinerman has traveled as far east as Turkey, as far north as Sweden, as far south as Ethiopia.

Allen Funt, creator-producer of "Candid Camera," is, in his spare time, an enthusiastic and proficient painter, sculptor and writer.

PATRIOTIC LICENSE

FRANKFORT, Ky. (AP) — The latest step for Kentucky motorists is a new driver's license — a pretty red, white and blue card instead of a drab photostat copy.

The Safety Department said the cards will be cheaper to produce and harder to counterfeit because of the coloring and paper stock.

State police said they have broken up three license-counterfeiting rings in recent years.

More than 40 fans clubs were certified by the Detroit Tigers in the 1963 season.

New Shows Coming; Old Shows Leave

Tongue-in-cheek international agents are the coming thing in television.

NBC which this season introduces "The Man From U.N. C.L.E." with Robert Vaughn starring as a man-about-the-world announces more intrigue for 1965-66.

As yet untitled, the proposed series will concern "the comedy-adventures of an intelligence agent who roams the world, posing as a tennis player and makes a career of being in glamorous places. Backgrounds will be filmed in whichever countries the stories are set."

Indicative of its major status in NBC's future plans is the signing of Sheldon Leonard as producer. His production credits include the Danny Thomas, Dick Van Dyke, Andy Griffith and Bill Dana Shows.

Another man on the move is the larger-than-life but definitely not fictional Jackie Gleason.

GOES TO MIAMI

His whole show has just migrated to Miami for the season . . . via a 12-car private train. A crowd of celebrities was invited to see The Great Gleason Express off from Penn Station in New York and a big civic reception was set for Miami end.

Gleason's air time remains the same as last season, 7:30 p.m. Saturdays. On hand (and on board) were: Comics Frank Fontaine, Sid Fields, and Barbara Heller; June Taylor and her dancers, the Gleason Girls; Phil Napoleon and his Memphis Five and others, many others. The first show from the new locale will be September 26.

Lassie is getting a change of scenery too. It's goodbye to Timmy. The durable collie is slated for "new human relationships and adventures on a national and international scale." It's all being made possible because Lassie (who's beginning her 11th CBS year) is leaving the farm and joining the forest service.

CHANGED SIDES

Ed Nelson, of the new "Peyton Place" series was a press agent before becoming an actor.

HOLLY MARRIAGE

Regis ("Burke's Law") Toomey and his wife celebrated their 39th wedding anniversary this year.

UP IN THE AIR

When he's not working, Jackie Coogan's plans are pretty much up in the air. So far he has logged over 8,500 flying hours.

HOBBY

Raymond Massey spends much of his spare time cabinet making.

EARLY DAYS

Dizzy Dean, baseball commentator and former major league star, spent six years working in the cotton fields before the game beckoned.

Allen Ludden, host of "Password," was Maurice Evans' personal manager and advance man for a 1946 nationwide tour of "Hamlet."

Under the G.I. Bill, Wesley Lau of "Perry Mason" attended the University of Wisconsin and took his master's degree in theater arts at Yale.

Rocky Shahan of "Rawhide" was born on a cattle ranch. He says he has been busting bronchos since he was "hip-high to a hoop snake."

Bert Lahr To Leave Clown

Bert Lahr is about to lose his long-held reputation as a sad clown when he's not on stage. He's been having a ball rehearsing the TV edition of "The Fantasticks" with Stanley Holloway. "They're perfect foils for each other, the quips never stop," says a cast member. The color show won't be aired until November, but considering it includes a goodie like Lahr and Holloway soft-shoeing it should be worth the waiting for.

A while back it was predicted that the "Daniel Boone" merchandise would hit the counters at the same time the new Fess Parker series hits the air. Well, the timing was a way off. The show won't bow until September but you can already get your little toy gun. There's wearing apparel, too, in case you need something to match up a leftover Davy Crockett coonskin cap.

15-Year-Old Girl Looming As TV Star

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP Television-Radio Writer

HOLLYWOOD (AP) —Debbie Watson, a bubbling, wide-eyed 15-year-old today can walk down any Los Angeles street, or order a cheeseburger at any drive-in without causing any undue stir.

By the time Thanksgiving rolls around all this will change because pretty, typical-teen Debbie, for better or for worse, will then be a recognizable television star. A Los Angeles youngster whose previous theatrical experience included only some roles in community theaters and at Knott's Berry Farm, she has the title role on NBC's

Dean Show songstress "The reason I don't plan to fall off is the same reason I don't swim. Can't afford to get my hair wet before an evening appearance."

new "Karen," one of the three situation comedies strung together under the umbrella title of "90 Bristol Court," which will debut in October.

AWAITS CHANGE

Debbie awaits the change of status with undisguised impatience.

"I've already gotten four fan letters," she announced breathlessly. "And I can't imagine how anybody knew about me."

Debbie and I were joined for the studio luncheon break by Richard Denning, television's former "Mr. North" and "Michael Shayne," who is playing her father in the series.

On the joys of being a public figure, he said: "At first, it's marvellous. You really get a kick out of having people nudge each other when they see you and whisper your name. You get a great thrill out of being asked for autographs and addressed by strangers. But after awhile there are times when you wish people would let you alone."

Debbie listened politely and murmured sympathetically, but it was obvious that she couldn't

Star To Have New TV Role As Sorceress

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP Television-Radio Writer

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — The big movie studio where Bette Davis and Joan Crawford are starring in a film had been chilled to a frigid 60 degrees although the outside temperature was well over 85.

We huddled around an electric heater in a trailer dressing room as Agnes Moorehead, in her movie costume — frowsy gray wig and slattern's house-dress — discussed the fine art of playing a chic, sophisticated witch, her next, very different chore.

ABC's "BEWITCHED"

After our chat, Miss Moorehead was to have a chair smashed over her head, tumble down a flight of stairs and break her neck as the violent start of "Bewitched," ABC's tongue-in-cheek entry into this season's fantasy sweepstakes.

Miss Moorehead, an eminent actress with a broad background of stage and screen, will be playing the part of Elizabeth Montgomery's sorceress mother in the series. Elizabeth will be a young witch who marries a young advertising executive, and abandons witchcraft. The series will be full of magic — with mother witch appearing and disappearing at will, controlling other people, reading minds.

REPLACE CRONKITE

After all these years, Walter Cronkite will be missing from his anchorman's post during the Democratic convention. CBS' decision to replace Cronkite with Bob Trout and Roger Mudd is obviously an attempt to repair the network's convention ratings.

NBC's news team, topped by the popular Huntley and Brinkley, easily won the top audience ratings during the Republican sessions.

Film credits for E. G. Marshall, star of "The Defenders," include "The Caine Mutiny," "Twelve Angry Men," "The Journey" and "Town Without Pity."

Prentiss Childs, coproducer of "Face the Nation," filmed the rededication of the Coventry Cathedral in 1962, in which Queen Elizabeth II participated.

Peter Kalischer, CBS News Far East correspondent, served as a World War II sergeant in New Guinea, the Philippines and Japan.

Alice Ghostley, Agnes in Jackie Gleason's comedy sketches once worked as a gasket maker in a wartime plant in Manville, N.J.

James Arness of "Gunsmoke" was wounded at Anzio in World War II and spent a year in a hospital.

imagine fame ever becoming a bore.

FAME NO BORE

Helen Trubel, the former Metropolitan Opera Wagnerian soprano and once a favorite television playmate of Jimmy Durante, has been cast as Tony Franciosa's mother in ABC's forthcoming comedy "Valentine's Day"—playing a former opera star.

"What's My Line?" has jumped into the Nielsen top ten during the warm weather, its annual demonstration that the audience will hunt for fresh material.

ELECTRIC LIVING GUIDE

Two-Home Trend Increasing

Electricity For Heating Also On Upswing

"Two cars in every garage, and two garages for every car" is one builder's summation of the trend to well-built vacation homes.

"Shorter work weeks and longer vacations have created the demand for a vacation - home - away - from - home for thousands of families.

"Furthermore, the demand is for 'year-around' type construction. The family with a place at the beach may want to go there in mid-winter just as much as a family of skisuits goes to their chalet.

"Complete electrical house heating makes it all make sense.

"It's ready to go to work the instant it's switched on.

"Not only is it the perfect fuel . . . but with electricity, the equipment itself is going to stay in fine shape from one visit to the next."

Electrical heating systems need no seasonal cleanings.

There are few or no moving parts to get out of order.

—Two-Home Cost Justifiable—
A study bearing out the two-home trend says that increased leisure time and earlier retirement are two influencing factors.

A family of four with the time to travel long distances might find the travel cost to far places prohibitive. The same money going into a house "is invested, not just expended."

It's also noted that couples with young children are finding that the money that used to go into camp tuition goes a good way toward the cost of "the second home."

The most outright "proof of the pudding," though, comes from an electrical contractor in New Jersey, who says that many of his customers for "conversion" found out how much more easy and comfortable living can be in an electrically heated house . . . now want the same high standards for their "main homes."

"EQUALIZED" ELECTRICITY PAYMENT PLAN EXPLAINED

You may turn on your electrical heating system for a couple of hours throughout the summer when it's cold and rainy outside.

Otherwise, you use it when you need it . . . and you're apt to need it most, in the northeast part of the United States in January.

In fact, you use approximately 21% of your total annual consumption of electricity in January. This is the finding of a major utility company's study of electrically heated homes.

The figure, incidentally, includes electricity for all other usages as well: lighting, appliances.

But—where the 10-payment plan is in effect—the homeowner isn't going to have to take the 21% sock all at once, right after Christmas.

Amazingly close estimates of usage can be figured in advance by the utility company, which then divides the total by 10 and spreads the cost over 10 months, September to June.

If the cost should be more, you would be billed, but not until July.

If the actual usage proves lower than the estimate, it's credited.

QUESTION BOX

Q. What is considered good insulation for the basement of an electrically heated house?

A. According to the National Mineral Wool Association, the recommendations depend on the region.

The three designations are:

- Unusually mild winters, such as Atlanta, Dallas.

- Unusually normal winters, such as New York, New Jersey, St. Louis.

- Usually severe winters, such as Buffalo, Minneapolis.

R-7 insulation is acceptable in the "unusually mild" range; R-8 is recommended for "usually normal" and the figure jumps to R-11 for the "usually severe" belt.

As any experienced electrical contractor will tell you, invest in the best insulation at the outset and save forever after.

There is no waste with electrical heating, as terms, so all of it can be there is with older system utilized providing the construction of the dwelling is sound and draft-free.

Q. Is electricity for heating purposes more common in homes than in larger structures?

A. The usage of electricity as the sole fuel to heat homes has mushroomed so in the last three and a half or so years that it captures the imagination. For the record, however, schools, office buildings, factories and sky-scraper apartments in some large cities are also totally heated by electricity . . . and, as with homes, this commercial trend is also increasing.

Why not? Chromalox Electric Baseboard Heaters take the place of old-fashioned, space-robbing furnaces . . . fit snugly along your outside walls and heat your entire home. No duct work, no motors, no fans, no pipes . . . and . . . no soot, no dust, no fumes, no flames, no drafts! Just clean, carefree comfort.

Chromalox Electric Baseboard Heaters install like ordinary baseboard trim along outside walls. Quick, easy, inexpensive installation . . . for new homes or home modernizing.

With a thermostat in every room, you have complete temperature control. And you can install electric heat for substantially less than any other heating system that provides comparable comfort. Operating costs will vary, depending on the number of rooms to be heated and the type of construction. We'll be glad to show you how little it will cost to install and operate Chromalox Electric Heat in your home. Just give us a call.

George Burns Is Still In Demand At 68

By BOB THOMAS
AP Movie-Television Writer

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—"When Gracie retired, I went to work," says George Burns, 68, and working harder than a beetle.

Burns had just returned from five weeks in Nevada where he regaled the dice throwers with songs and patter. He reported to Warner Bros. to begin his starring role in "Wendy and Me," a television series which he also is producing and helping to write.

In addition, he is producing and supervising the scripts of another Warners series, "No Time for Sergeants." And he continued overseeing "Mister Ed," which he helped create.

If he is overworked, he doesn't show it.

"LOVE TO DO"

"I'm doing what I love to do," Burns said. "Retire? Never. I was retired during all those years I worked with Gracie. It's no wonder she wanted to quit; she did all the work. If we had 35 pages of dialogue, she had to memorize 25 pages of it. All I did was say, 'Tell me about your brother,' and that would start her off."

Burns told how he found a new home at Warner Bros.

"The studio had Connie Stevens, whom I greatly admired, and I had the idea for a series, which Warners liked. The story has me, George Burns, buying an apartment building to give me an audience for my singing. One of the tenants is Connie, who plays a airlines stewardess. I weave in and out of the stories, talk to the audience and sing a song now and then."

"J. L. Warner was so pleased with how 'Wendy and Me' turned out that he asked me to take over 'No Time for Sergeants' as well."

BURNS IS STAGESTRUCK

Is it possible that George is stagestruck?

"Sure, I am," he said. "But that's true of all of us who have done well in the business; we all love to work. Jack Benny is that way. So is Bob Hope. Milton Berle? Why, all you have to do is open a refrigerator door and the light causes him to go into 20 minutes of jokes."

"But it's true of the younger generation, too. Nothing could hold back an Ann-Margret or a Bobby Darin. They have that same thing that we have: the drive to please an audience. It happens that I discovered Ann-Margret, but I don't take any bows for it. If I hadn't discovered her, someone else would have. You can't hold back talent."

VARIED ASSIGNMENTS

Gertrude Rosenstein has taken up her new duties as director of the game show "Concentration." Earlier she was granted two leaves of absence from NBC to work on the Spoleto Festival in Italy and the Shakespeare Festival in Stratford, Conn.

REAL FAN

William Frawley ("My Three Sons") is a baseball fan off screen as well as on. He's an honorary director of the Los Angeles Angels.

STARTED YOUNG

Mickey Rooney, who's changing pace and turning to a TV series this year, has appeared in more than 100 motion pictures.

Gudrun Bjarnadottir, of Iceland, Miss International Beauty of 1963 who will crown the 1964 beauty.

Fame Brings Problems To Some Actors

By CYNTHIA LOWRY

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Fame and popular affection, however much desired by an actor, are not always unmixed blessings.

Ray Walston, the Actors Studio alumnus and Broadway stage veteran who plays the title role in CBS' "My Favorite Martian," spent all of last season emotionally torn between the joy of starring in a hit series and stewing because he was convinced he was type-cast, the actor's worst bugaboo.

This fear now has been banished. Two days after production of the CBS comedy-fantasy shut down for the season, Walston was called to replace Peter Sellers, felled by a heart attack, in Billy Wilder's film comedy, "Kiss Me, Stupid."

STAYS IN CONDITION

"The television series had nothing to do with it," Walston explained. "I had a small role in 'The Apartment,' and Wilder told me then that some day he'd have a good part for me. He remembered."

Walston works at his acting as conscientiously as a young athlete determined to stay in peak form. A punching bag and bar bells are handy outside his dressing room. He rides a bicycle around the studio and, at home, often pedals two miles up a steep hill.

Launch Syncom III August 18

August 18 has been named as launching date for experimental communications satellite Syncom III.

If successful, it will be utilized for live telecasting of the opening of the Olympic Games October 10 in Tokyo.

Says a White House statement, "It would be the fore runner of the coming establishment of the global communications satellite system bridging the Pacific as well as the Atlantic and would strengthen the bonds of understanding and cooperation."

NBC, which holds exclusive television coverage rights of the Olympics states that it will voluntarily make both pictures and sound available to other Ameri-

last season with NBC's "Richard Boone Show" anthology series, will be attempted again next season on CBS' weekly revue series, "The Entertainers." Carol Burnett, Bob Newhart and Caterina Valente will be the show toppers, but the company will include a number of young newcomers.

NBC is increasing the number of shows it will present in color next season, including, among others, "That Was the Week That Was."

Rowan and Martin, the comedy team, are candidates for a late-evening ABC show this fall. A couple of seasons back Martin played Lucille Ball's bachelor neighbor for awhile.

types?

The gathering of the international beauties has gone on in Long Beach for a dozen years with civic excitement starting three days earlier when the preliminaries get underway.

OLD CUSTOM

This new name for an old custom came into being several years back when the earlier "Miss Universe" branched off and moved to Miami. The people of Long Beach, however, seem indifferent to the semantics. It's still the same contest and it still takes place in their town for the whole world to see.

In addition to the eventual beauty queen, Gottlieb has a sneaky hope that he may have another winner on his hands. It's a song to be presented for the first time during the August 14 telecast "in orchestral and choral arrangement." Composed by Frank Hubbell it's fittingly titled, "World of Beauty."

can networks and individual stations.

Aside from the history-making aspects of live coverage, it is expected that taping of Syncom III coverage for later broadcast would be most likely. The 14-hour time differential means that the two-hour live coverage would commence at 1 a.m. New York time.

The international agreements necessary were handled by the U.S. Department of State over a period of many months.

"Big Names" Sign For TV Fall Series

More "big name" plans are being planned by producers for upcoming series. Hunt Stromberg Jr., is crowing because Rita Hayworth has signed for her first TV appearance. It will be on "Rawhide" and tips a whole policy change for "Rawhide." They'll commission specially written vehicles "to fit the star" instead of finding a star to fit a vehicle.

"Candid Camera" is planning to use some pretty heady star stuff, too, to give its hardy perennial a fresh flavor. Already on the dotted line are Victor Borge and Carol Channing.

GET SUGGESTIONS

That Horace MacMahon is a man worth listening to, and the "Mr. Broadway" producers listened, then took up his suggestions. Horace, who's been signed to portray Craig Stevens' as (CBS), in the fall suggested that, while they were casting him as a public relations man, they might just as well cast him as a public relations man who is an ex-detective! That's how most of us think of Horace anyway, most recently because of "Naked City" and before that "Detective Story."

And speaking of "Mr. Broadway," jazzman Dave Brubeck has been signed to create the music. He sees it in terms of "a solo piano and a full orchestra." Interesting too; all in all he'll develop four hours of music "main themes for main characters, contracting melodies to meet dramatic requirements."

SIGN SONGWRITER

Another notable now toiling on TV music is songwriter Vic Mizzy who's creating for the forthcoming NBC "Kentucky Jones" series. It's planned to issue an album, too, when he's finished up.

Those Lettermen, who spend their winters in colleges (doing concerts), are spending the summer vacation at New York's Latin Quarter. In their three years in the business the boys have visited 400 colleges and made seven albums with total sales now over three million.

Inger Stevens will follow in the footsteps of Sophia Loren, Elizabeth Taylor, Queen Hope of Sikkim, Princess Grace of Monaco and do a guided TV tour (of her native Sweden, in January, on ABC).

Personable Paul Cunningham, known to "Today" viewers as a really good reporter, has been made an associate producer of the program.

NEW HORIZONS

The "Richard Boone Show" which will end its U.S. run this season, has been booked for showing in Cyprus.

The long-run children's science demonstrations program, "Watch Mr. Wizard" will soon be seen also in Kenya.

SPEED OF EARTH

The Syncom III satellite is designed to link Japan and America with live TV coverage on the opening day of the Olympics. It must make an equatorial orbit to be successful and travel at the same speed as earth.

Joe Flynn of "McHale's Navy" says he can't report any bright sayings of his two children because "I'm raising them to be straight men."
